Norman Thurston, Health Reform Implementation Coordinator for the State of Utah

Dr. Thurston has been a policy analyst and health economist for the Utah Department of Health in various roles for the past eight years. In his current role, he serves as a policy advisor and executive staff for health system reform efforts in the State of Utah.

Before joining the state, Dr. Thurston worked for eight years as an assistant professor of economics at Brigham Young University. He has published several articles on health care markets in nationally recognized economics journals. He is a lifelong resident of Utah. He has native-level fluency in Spanish and was a Fulbright Scholar teaching economics in Argentina in 2001.

Dr. Thurston has a Master's Degree and Ph.D. in economics from Princeton University, and an undergraduate degree in Spanish and Agribusiness Management from Brigham Young University. His areas of specialty include insurance markets, health care provider markets, labor markets, and public finance/economics.